Purpose: The goals of OCCM are to deepen the spiritual and devotional life of university and college students across several campuses through study of Coptic Orthodox Christian doctrine and lifestyle, to further the welfare of students in body, mind, and spirit in harmony with the Christian purpose, and to increase involvement of youth in the Coptic community through personal, professional, and spiritual development. The UF Chapter especially hopes to place a strong emphasis on engaging in activities that benefit the entire Gainesville community, both on and off campus.

Activities: In order to accomplish our goals, OCCM will hold Bible studies as well as other spiritual-based services which will be available to all UF students. Additionally, our organization hopes to better the welfare of the student body by putting our members in contact with volunteering opportunities that directly support the community. These include feeding the homeless with Project Downtown, baking for the families of Shands' patients at the Ronald McDonald House, and providing support to UF students during testing week.

Proviso: This allocation will exhaust at the end of the fiscal year on June 30, 2019
