Purpose: Florida Players continues to thrive as an innovative organization that brings students together through the magic of theatre. We look forward to working with student government to provide UF students and the community with these invaluable opportunities and experiences.

Activities: Florida Players has mounted three innovative productions fall semester, and have followed it with three more brilliant productions in the spring, one of which was completely comprised of student-written new work. These performances stimulated great interest both inside and outside of the UF School of Theatre and Dance, and they have inspired theatre and non-theatre majors alike to create and appreciate theatrical art. Florida Players demonstrates the importance of theatre and the arts in human expression and community.

Proviso: This allocation will exhaust at the end of the fiscal year on June 30, 2019
