WHEREAS, On October 6, 2022, the University of Florida Presidential Search Committee announced a unanimous decision to recommend United States Senator Dr. Ben Sasse as the sole finalist for consideration by the Board of Trustees, and

WHEREAS, The Student Body President Lauren Lemasters is a part of the Presidential Search Committee and took part in this unanimous decision, and

WHEREAS, In the e-mail announcement sent to the Student Body by Student Body President Lauren Lemasters, she claimed that “[Sasse] set himself apart as a candidate who deeply understands higher education and this unique moment of opportunity in the history of our institution and country”, and

WHEREAS, In a Press Release sent by the Board of Trustees, Senator Ben Sasse is quoted saying “It’s the most important institution in the nation’s most economically dynamic state — and its board, faculty, and graduates are uniquely positioned to lead this country through an era of disruption”, and

WHEREAS, Senator Ben Sasse was previously President of Midland University, a private University with an enrollment of 1600 students [1], and UF is a public university with an enrollment of 60,000 students [2], and

WHEREAS, Senator Ben Sasse as President of Midland University eliminated tenure positions [3], and there are currently 46 tenure and tenure track faculty at the Levin College of Law alone

WHEREAS, in a statement referring to the 2015 ruling on the Supreme Court case Obergefell v. WHEREAS, Senator Ben Sasse has received a 0/100 rating from the Human Rights Campaign, an LGBTQ advocacy organization, due to his actions in Congress, and

WHEREAS, in a statement referring to the 2022 overturning of the Supreme Court case Roe v. Wade, which eradicated the previously protected Constitutional right to abortion access, Sasse stated "by righting a Constitutional wrong – the Supreme Court took a historic step forward", and [6]

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED That the University of Florida Student Senate urges Student Body President Lemasters to vote 'no' on the confirmation of Senator Ben Sasse.

THEREFORE, LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED That the University of Student Senate condemns the Presidential Search Committee's decision to name Senator Ben Sasse as sole finalist and opposes his confirmation due to his opposition to values directly supported by the chamber, and inexperience with the intricacies of large public institutions.
