Vice President for Student Life

Re: Spring & Summer A 2026 Student Organization Funding

Dear Blake,

Per UF Regulation 4.002(7) and Student Government Code 302.5, I am exercising my veto authority as the University President's designee for reviewing allocations and laws passed by Student Government. As the Vice President for Student Life, I respect the autonomy of Student Government and our student leaders who dedicate their time to improving the student experience at the University of Florida. Using my veto authority is a task I hope I rarely have to utilize during my tenure, but unfortunately, I believe the Spring & Summer A 2026 Student Organization Funding proposal requires it.

University Sponsored Student Organizations (USSO), as extensions of their sponsoring UF affiliated unit are not eligible for SG funding (see SG Code 800.18 and UF Policy 16-003). SG explicitly states in SG Code 800.18: Sponsored Organizations – Any student organization which receives direct support from another University entity. This includes, but is not limited to space, direct guidance from paid university staff and/or faculty, resources, funding, etc. These may not be funded by SG [emphasis added]. In reviewing the proposed Spring & Summer A 2026 Student Organization Funding, it has come to my attention that the following organizations are USSO's: American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics and the FYCS Grad Assoc. Therefore, the proposed base funding for these organizations is a violation of Student Government's codes.

The funding of student organizations is one of the most important roles for our Student Government and contributes deeply to the student experience. Therefore, to minimize the impact on the overall proposed Spring & Summer A 2026 student organization funding, and to ensure compliance with Student Government's codes, I am line-item vetoing Base Funding Request # 18319 – American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics in the amount of $1,025.00 as well as Base Funding Request # 19758 – FYCS Grad Assoc. also in the amount of $1,025.00.

Sincerely,
